APPLIED META-PHYSICS, THE SCIENCE OF BE-ING AND KNOWING

ESSAY: STRENGTH

Dictionary definitions go around in circles. They inform the intellect, yet, do not illumine the mind, simply because every word is spirit, with form and power.

The form is the word, the power is the emotion shaping the word. Together they create meaning.

If we check the dictionary for the word 'strength', we read: "The property of being physically or mentally strong". If we investigate further and look up 'strong' we read: "Having strength or power greater than average or expected". So the word 'strength' is used to define strong, and 'strong' is used to define strength... and investigators are none the wiser.

Only through the experience or emotional intelligence does the full and real meaning come through. I emphasise the depth and inner meaning of words constantly because this world is presently governed by intellectuals and the resulting situations and wars are due to inadequacy of understanding the healing power and meaning of WORDS.

Wisdom and understanding comes from feeling; from emotional intelligence, and from having the experiences, which allow us to make comparisons, so that we can gain clarity and a greater understanding of each word's meaning.

Ignorance of the power and depth of words to transform this world from a hellish existence into a heavenly realm, is indicated in the opening chapter of the Gospel of John:

“And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.” The darkness, is the intellect's inability to comprehend the light, because it is divided from the emotional intelligence/spiritual light.

Metaphysically, 'strength' is energy from God, permeating every idea of the mind, and cell of the body, and charging every cell with the vibration of Spirit, of Life!

To use an example I've used before, in a different way, relating to sound. If we put sand on a flat plate and draw the bow of a violin across the edge of the plate, then the vibrations will cause the sand to form a shape. The shape will vary according to the tone of the vibration, the sound. What is happening is that the vibration is permeating the sand, causing it to respond and assume a shape.

In this process there is intelligence and strength. The vibration produces and guides both. So, our own Spiritual body contains the vibration of God and according to the tone we are open to receive, our mind receives the light/vibration and our body takes shape.

Once the music stops, the shape is held. What holds it is the memory of the vibration which caused it to form the shape... and it will hold the shape until a greater vibration changes it.

Likewise, all those who are familiar with the work of Masaru Emoto, who photographed water crystals after exposing them to different words, will understand that vibration forms this world and we direct vibration via the spoken Word.

In the case of the water crystals, the memory is more clearly in evidence, because of the macro photography. Consider the shapes each crystal forms after being exposed to words, to vibration. Then consider that our own bodies are two thirds to three quarters water. Then think about the effect of prayer and affirmation on our own selves. Think about the real reason why we bless our food before eating it.

The crux of prayer is that it does not change God's mind. It changes our minds and whatever we bless, as we draw closer to the perfect vibration of God.

Those who chant mantras will tell you that doing so imparts a deep peace to them, as they align with the music of the spheres. Their chanting sets up a sympathetic vibration with the cosmos, and as they feel at one with life, peace must manifest, because unity is oneness, oneness is wholeness, wholeness is peace.

Forget the overt piousness and funny garb of those who use their 'authority' to deceive you into 'waiting for a messiah' or to rule you. Religion and politics, is all about us growing stronger and more unified, by drawing on the power of the spirit and the Spirit flooding our cells like water floods sand and cement bonding and strengthening it.

Sand is sand, cement is cement, sand can represent thought, cement can represent action, mix the two and add the right amount of water, of truth, and you have a completely new structure/state of consciousness, which we use to build one hundred and sixty-three story buildings! That's correct.

The Burj Khalifa in Dubai is a concrete structure, a symbol of human inventiveness towering into the sky, teaching us a simple analogy, and people see the structure, but do not understand the analogy; the lesson. That life is built from stories, and stories are the combination of thoughts-words and actions, and we can furnish these stories according to the value system we hold in our hearts.

In the Helios Biblia, the parable of the house built on a rock is sharing Wisdom, relating to the strength we gain, when our lives are built on a state of consciousness established in Spirit, instead of building our house on the shifting opinions (sand) of the world and its systems.

Likewise, we each gain strength as we cultivate it via getting to know ourselves as offspring of God. "Know Thyself" was inscribed over the entrance to the temple in Delphi, because that was the whole purpose of the temple and of the mysteries taught there.

They are called 'mysteries' because the average person growing up in the world is subject to a form of indoctrination, which exalts the intellect. The result is a cold hearted, empty, lonely individual, who lives by the world's standards, and value systems. Those who passed through the indoctrination of the schooling system, with the flame in their hearts still burning, to any degree, were suitable for teaching the mysteries.

That which is emotional and Spiritual is a mystery to the intellect. Intellectualism is a dis-ease. Those who doubt this, need just look around at the world and its intellectual political system and the wars, for confirmation.

“Fear loves to pose as strength”... Is an age old adage, and this is an accurate description of world politics where the intellectuals are divided from their own consciousness of spirit, the division creates emptiness, the emptiness creates fear, and they then seek security to alleviate their fear and they use violence to persuade other intellectuals in the exact same state that they are ‘stronger’.

This is the insanity which governs the world. And it works on levels of ignorance, where there is a pyramid scheme or hierarchy and only those at the top are privy to all the details of the agenda and each subsequent lower tier is bound in ignorance and carries out the dirty work. Such a hierarchy can only exist, where those growing up and becoming a part of them are shaped by their predecessors. They are a product of indoctrination and are ignorant of the great beauty we all contain within. Lacking spiritual strength, they use violence, and each level of the pyramid exalts itself over the level below it, and this is how every tier carries out the violence it is directed to, and because there is no emotional intelligence they feel nothing murdering their brothers and sister.

All of the world's armies are formed through intense indoctrination, specifically designed to eliminate any and every form of kindness and compassion, so that they are turned into killing machines, who will carry out orders on command—and without question. Of course, like the indoctrination at school, a few retain a measure of humanity. Unfortunately the majority fall asleep under the intense pressure and indoctrination of the Race Thought Atmosphere, and become murderers.

None of these wars would ever happen if the human family was well nourished spiritually. The politicians and 'atheists' like to repeat that "religion causes wars" and they've repeated this lie for so long that unthinking people repeat it, having swallowed the bait, designed to get them to avoid religion, because religion in its essence strengthens every individual and sets them free. Think not? Go to any temple, to any 'church' to any 'mosque' to any 'synagogue' or 'ashram', or any form of religious 'retreat' and count the number of people fighting. ZERO. Across the board. This does not mean religion does not have charlatans and sexual predators, or arguments, it means that those who instinctively turn to religion are looking for peace of mind and where there are charlatans, they're not teaching Religion.

WAR is always started by the politicians who manipulate through coercion and threats of violence, because these are the intellectuals, and Satan has set up his throne in the intellect thousands of years ago. This is why we have been taught that 'Satan' is the ruler of this world, because 'he' has hijacked the minds of those seeking worldly power and divided them from conscious unity with God.

Those who kindle the flame of God in their hearts, -and yes, this is a very real and tangible experience of unspeakable beauty, beyond description- look to no exterior authority and are guided by and submit to the only authority there is: God, via the Holy Spirit which is breathing through everyone imparting Life.

God is Love, Religion is the process of defragmenting consciousness and restoring wholeness, that is conscious union with God/Love, so all claims that Religion causes wars are pure deceit. Let the reader bear in mind that adjectives come after the events. A man who wars is a warmonger, a man who steals is a thief, a man who kills is a murderer. A man who attains union with God is Faithful. The intellect has long used a deceitful method of changing the meaning of words, to trick people. It gives some people titles regardless of their behaviour. It does this to assume authority, one over another.

There is no greater adjective or title than: Human Be-ing. God's mind IS in activity. This is what hu-man be-ing means and it is ignorance of this and a lack of self-knowledge which produces the gap which has allowed the Race Thought Atmosphere to infiltrate the mind and capture consciousness and govern people's lives.

Strength is the ability to withstand the infiltration of the Race Thought Atmosphere and its habitual thought forms, its egregores, demons, jinn and fallen desires. Strength is our ability to live in the world and temper these influences and transmute them so we are not subject to them. We grow strong, by aligning ourselves with the Divine Law, and as we do, we appropriate the Light... our intellect becomes illumined through personal experience and communion with the Spirit, and it takes the 'sand' of our thinking and the 'cement' of our actions and it combines them with the water of Truth and we grow stronger and stronger each day. Strength is a faculty of mind, we each need to cultivate, for it is necessary to sustain self-confidence and remain centred in the power centre of the Solar Plexus, whose light, when it radiates through the body, illumines every part with an ecstatic vibration. The faculty of Strength is located in the lower back, and when we feel unable to support ourselves, or feel those nearest and dearest to us do not support us, then we feel back issues. This is how our body, our Book of Life, records every thought, word and deed and speaks to us. As we learn how to read our Book of Life, and make adjustments to our thinking, learning how to sound the depths of our being and draw up and express our highest ideals, we grow stronger and stronger, the Spirit permeates mind and body and we become more and more aware of it and this is unity with God and the source of all our strength.

Applied Meta-Physics is the oldest Science in existence. It is the study of who we are and why we are here.

It is sometimes called 'The Science of Making the Ideal Real', because it identifies in concrete terms the abstract workings of the mind, and teaches the steps every eternal idea passes through in transition from the plane of the eternal spiritual world, to become manifest on the earth plane.

The sacred writings we have inherited are metaphysical in nature. This means they have been written through the inspiration of the Paraclete using words, which have varied meanings, interpreted accordingly, depending on which level of consciousness the reader has achieved.

The art of Applied Meta-Physics is to 'conceal, to reveal'. The Wisdom the writers concealed protects it from those who would destroy the writings, and therefore destroy themselves, until a time when the human family matured and awakened and realised its need.

The scriptures are like an offer to an addict deep in the throes of ad-diction, rejecting what they really need most, and lashing out, because they have lost control of their own minds. In the height of the loss of control the addict attacks those seeking to help them and would destroy them.

The parables, analogies, codes and koans in the Helios Biblia have preserved these writings, as the power of the Word concealed within them has worked in the hu-man consciousness to do exactly that.

Applied Meta-Physics is the Key opening the way to comprehending their riches and applying the Wisdom revealed in one's life and proving the truth thereof.

There is a simple fact of life:

We are all created equal, in that we are all the offspring of God, and we form our lives by the thoughts, words, deeds we think, speak and do. The equality is that the Divine Law is no respecter of personalities.

We are all held responsible for everything we do, and our body either regenerates or degenerates according to the motives of our hearts. If we seek to rule others, we are using the life we have been given to express ourselves contrary to the Divine Law, and this is slow and definite suicide.

If we submit to the will of another, this too is slow suicide and contrary to the Divine Law.

The LAW IS!

It is the Doorway to Everlasting Life.

PEACE.
